

Closing the Virtual Teamwork Skills Gap

Join Us For an Exclusive Webinar

Over the past year, there has been a tremendous shift in the way we work, and especially the way we “team.” Effective teamwork will be a significant factor in determining which organizations thrive in the hybrid workplace and which struggle to survive.

To help set your teams up for success, join us for an exclusive informational webinar, Closing the Virtual Teamwork Skills Gap, where you’ll learn about the unique challenges virtual teams face according to Wiley’s latest research.

During this session, you’ll learn strategies on how to create a culture of teamwork and how The Five Behaviors® can help. With the guidance of The Five Behaviors, you’ll have the resources to adapt the way you team – for the better!

In This Webinar You Will:

- Discover the unique challenges faced by virtual teams based on Wiley’s latest research
- Learn strategies for developing an effective virtual team culture
- Learn about the powerful Five Behaviors model, its groundbreaking approach to team development, and how it can be leveraged to unlock the power of teamwork in your organization
